How to tell us that you are not happy

We deal with complaints by following the Housing Ombudsman's Complaint Handling Code. This can be found on the website at www.housing-ombudsman.org.uk/landlords-info/complaint-handling-code/

We want to know if you feel that:

- We did something wrong
- We did something that you think we should not have done
- We have not done something that you think we should have done

You can make a complaint by:

- Calling us: 0333 320 2675, Monday to Friday, 8am to 6pm
- Sending us an email: RWPenquiries@progressgroup.org.uk
- Visiting our website: www.residewithprogress.org.uk

What will happen if you make a complaint?

We will look at your complaint (Stage One).

We will contact you by letter or email within 5 working days to let you know we have received your complaint.

You will receive a full written response within 10 working days.

We will listen to what you are telling us and show you how we will try to make things better.

What will happen if you make a complaint? (continued)

You can also have someone to deal with your complaint on your behalf, such as a friend, relative or Member of Parliament (MP).

What happens if you are not happy with what we say about the complaint?

You can ask us to look at your complaint again (Stage Two).

We will do this. We will contact you by letter or email within 5 working days to let you know we have received your complaint.

You will receive a full written response within 20 working days.

You can ask someone else to speak with us about your complaint.

You can do this by asking a Member of Parliament (MP) or councillor.
